Vimukti moves to a bigger, better campus

Greetings from all of us at Vimukti Girls School!

Last June we shifted to a rented premise after functioning out of a free of cost campus for almost twelve years. It took us sometime to settle to the new place and many things that we planned to accomplish last year could not be done the way we wanted to, because of the shift.

This summer, we were again forced to shift to a new campus. The decision has been taken after a lot of deliberations and in the best interest of the students. The new campus is much bigger with many more facilities compared to the previous one. We will have to pay maintenance for the premises but we have an assurance that we can stay here for a longer duration which is essential for us as we upgrade the school to class XII.

Hope you will continue to support us as always. Here are some glimpses of our new campus.
