Vimukti at University Commerce College, Jaipur

"23rd December was the best day of 2016 in University Commerce College, Jaipur when a sincere endeavour was made to create a sense of patriotism among 100 under privileged school girls studying in VIMUKTI, an NGO, where about 600 girls most of whom are from slums & so called kachhi bastis study. Girls were made aware about Great Indian Leaders(Vivekananda, Gandhi, Guru Nanak Dev, etc) & Indian Scriptures(Vedas, GITA, Ramayan, etc). Students could express their feelings in the Essay Competition on MERA BHARAT MAHAN & Poster making competition on life and thoughts of great Indians like Meera Bai, Rani Lakshmi Bai, Gandhi, Chanakya, Vivekananda, etc). Patriotic songs and bhajans of Gandhi by Prof M L Sharma (Formerly HOD, Department of Accountancy & Business Statistics) and Dr Mukesh Jain of Department of Business Administration and active participation by school children impressed and made happy each and every one present. Prof J P Yadav(HOD ,Economics Administration & Financial Management Department) and Prof ML Sharma distributed Prizes and delivered motivational speeches. I witnessed smile and happiness and a great feeling of satisfaction in everybody's face. Thanks to college teachers for their outstanding contribution and financial support in sponsoring the event." Navin Mathur, Principal, University Commerce College Jaipur.

Activity Update for the month of December 2016

- To celebrate the first Anniversary of their new wing- Bhartiya Chintan Anusandhan Kendra, the University Commerce College organized an essay writing and poster making competition in the college on 23rd December for the students of Vimukti Girls School.
